

Ishik University organized an event regarding the World's Diabetes Day on November 14, 2018, in front of the main building. Both students and departmental staff of medical analysis jointly prepared this event.

Dr. Mehmet Ozdemir, Academic Vice President and Dr. Wasfi kahwachi, Admin. & Fin. Vice President participated in the program. The opening speech presented by dean of science faculty, Dr. Karzan Mohammed. Then three seminars were presented at the conference hall of education faculty.

This event involved other activities such as food and refreshments booths, games booth, handcrafts booth, posters booth, laboratory testing for diabetes. Approximately 1,000,000 IQD were collected, and all the income will be donated to charity.

This slideshow requires JavaScript.