

Ishik University announces that for the first time among Iraqi Universities, Dentistry Faculty will open the first dental studio unit for the Dentist Community. The Dental Studio Unit includes the Digital Smile Design (DSD) software manipulations and latest technology regarding objective flashes, lenses and lightening system have been provided.

Starting from January 01, 2019, the Studio services will be available.

This slideshow requires JavaScript.