

On December 12, 2018, ISHIK University Opened an Exhibition about Human Rights. The Exhibition included several artistic drawings, which were the products of ISHIK students and the respected teacher Mrs. Xumar, the drawing reflected the adversities that humans undergo throughout their life. It started at 10:00 am in the morning and continued until 2 PM in the afternoon.

The exhibition was supervised by the Dean of students with some volunteer who shared the joying of organizing such an exuberant event. The entrance of the main building was decorated with a piece of mellifluous music in the background, the exhibition exuded an ambiance of serenity.

We thank our active and talented students for their contribution and participation in this kind of events. We are also looking forward to organizing more of these activities.
