

The Faculty of Science at Tishk International University in partnership with Kurdistan Board of Medical Specialities, University of Zakho, Hawler amedical University, Iranaian national Institute for Biotechnology, and The Hamk University in Finland; organized one of the biggest international medical conference in the middle east under the title: International Conference on Clinical Research and Medical Science, from 19-20 of September,2019.

The conference launched in a prestigious dinner with a ceremony inviting all the keynotes and participating researchers with delegates and excellencies of governmental personals and also political icons. They have been warmly welcomed by the chair of the Conference Associate Professor Dr. Karzan Mohammad; Dean of Science Faculty at TIU who invited The Head of the Board of Trustees and the President of TIU his excellence (Dr Idris Hadi) to the stage to officially open the conference by his welcome speech.

The president of TIU gave a brief introduction about the TIU achievements and awards throughout the past years. The guests were interestingly acknowledged the progress of TIU briefed by the President Dr Idris Hadi. Then after Prestigious dinner served at the Erbil International Hotel to the guests. On 19/9/2019 at 9:19 am, the conference officially launched in a huge opening ceremony in which delegates of Parliament, government, presidents of universities, political parties were attending such a great moment.

The conference commenced by a brief introduction to the guests from the chair of the conference Associate Professor Dr. Karzan Mohammad, who announced that 234 researchers submitted 115 articles of which 99 accepted. The oral presentation were to be 66 papers while 33 were selected to be presented as posters. He also declared that researchers from 11 countries are participating with involvement of 45 Universities around the globe. He appreciated the support by the TIU University council specifically the Head of Board of Trustee and The President of TIU Dr Idris Hadi for his continued shielding and supporting scientific activities at the university.

The conference chair then invited his Excellency Dr Idris Hadi to address his speech as the hosting university of ICCRAMS. The president of TIU showed great appreciation to the organising team and the parties involved also mentioned his endless support for such great works. It is worth to mention that the conference hosted 11 keynote speakers who came from different countries of the world.

The keynote lectures started at 11:00 am and continued all the day till 6:00 pm, interrupted by two coffee breaks and generous lunch.

The conference continued for the third day on September 20th,2019 by presenting all the papers and posters by the researchers. Nevertheless in parallel to that 5 workshops were done by different medical faculties of the TIU. At the end of the day a closing remarks and ceremony including certificate awards and appreciations for organising committee and scientific committee.

The conference officially ended by a group photo at 6:30 pm on 20/9/2018.

This slideshow requires JavaScript.