

Prep School staff and students had organized a cultural visit to Halabja. This was aimed to remember those who had fallen and become martyrs and to give the students the feeling of nationhood.

The visit included the memorial in which the guide had given a well-informed presentation about the incident. The group, then, concluded the program with a picnic at a wonderful site.

This slideshow requires JavaScript.