

Marwan Alkhalidy, one of the academics in the Faculty of Law who was awarded with the “Best Presentation Award” in the 18th International Conference on Law and Social Sciences in Miami/Florida, gave a seminar regarding the experience of an international student in the USA.

During his presentation, he gave information about the teaching system and opportunities at Ishik University as well as in Iraqi Kurdistan. As a man from the region, he answered the questions about the lifestyle, especially, during these hard exhausting circumstances in which the whole region experiences against ISIS.

In the event where the law professors and law students from the College of Law at Michigan State University were ready, Marwan Al-Khalidy, as representative of our university, was appreciated by the attendees for his outstanding and satisfying presentation.

After the seminar, Mr. Al-Khalidy met the officials of the Michigan State University’s College of Law for the details about the previous MoU between Ishik and MSU.

This slideshow requires JavaScript.